Psalm 51

A GOOD LAMP

Made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves.

Step 4 of the Twelve Steps

Hi, my name is [NAME], and I'm sober.

Hi, my name is [NAME], and I'm an alcoholic.

I'm born again.

I'm saved.

I'm a Bible believing Christian.

I'm broken.

I'm a sinner.

I'm trying to make sense of it all.

We're broken.

We're all sinners.

We're trying to make sense of it all.

... A “SEARCHING AND FEARLESS MORAL INVENTORY,” IS FOR THE SAKE OF TRUTH
and humility
AND GENEROSITY OF SPIRIT,
NOT vengeance on the self
OR SOME KIND OF TOTAL VICTORY OVER THE SELF.

“God brings us—through failure—
from unconsciousness to ever-deeper consciousness and conscience.

How could that not be good news
for just about everybody?”

Richard Rohr, Breathing Under Water, p. 35
